South Bay LDS Church Hears Three Speakers

Guest speakers at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints Sunday evening were Lyle D. Croft, Sunday School Supervisor of the South Florida District, James Holly, district clerk and Mrs. James Holly.

Holly stressed in his talk the importance of living one's religion every day not just on Sundays and especially of living it in one's own home before the family. This, he said, is the best way in the world to convert a member of the family ### to the faith he hasn't yet accepted.

Croft spoke on "Destiny," and Mrs. Holly chose "Prayer" for her subject. All speakers were from the Ft. Lauderdale branch of the church.

Passover Holiday Observed By Jews

The story of the deliverance of the ancient Israelites from Egyptian bondage was rehearsed by Glade Jewry at the same time the holiday was ushered in Jewish homes throughout the world.

On March 26, 1956, Jewish families gathered around festive tables on the Passover Eve for the holiday service and meal known as the Seder (Seder). The traditional "four questions" were asked by members of the Sunday School.

Along with prayers and songs of thanksgiving, Jonas Lehrer, president of Beth Sholem, answered the questions by telling how the Jews told for the Pharaoh, how Moses grew up in the palace but could not brook the serfdom of his people and how he led the revolt against Egypt and ultimately liberated his people.

Each man attending took part by reading the scripture, a tradition in the Seder supper. In honor of history's first mass protest against human slavery, Jews will recite special supplications and take part in a special liturgy glorifying man's right to be free.

Associated with the celebration of Passover is the unleavened bread, or matzo (MAHTZ-a) symbolizing the "Bread of Affliction." Eating it during Passover is supposed to remind the Jews of slavery's bitterness and his divine duties to aid in the uplift of human beings.

The candlelight service was conducted by Mrs. Ruth Kahn and Mrs. William Wall was chairman of the supper. Place settings were laid for 65 persons. Decorations of vases of sweet peas and ananarragos were used on the table.

First Baptist Church Easter Music Program

The Chapel and Church Choirs of the First Baptist Church will present an Easter music program on Sunday night, April 1. The choral service will consist of selections from Handel's Messiah and Daboli's last Seven Words.

The Educational and Music director, Wendell Carpenter, will leave Monday morning for a week's revival with the Bethel Baptist Church of Poplarville, Mississippi.

The Berean Sunday School class, under the leadership of Mrs. Edrie Maxwell, had their monthly supper last Tuesday night in the Church recreational room.

On Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. J. K. Baker entertained the children of the Primary Department with an Easter party.

Training Union workers of our church will be attending the leadership school in Pahokee, April 2-4. Mr. Edwin Best, who is Training Union Director, urges Training Union members to attend as many nights as possible.

Holy Services At Episcopal Church

On Easter Day the Holy Eucharist will be celebrated at 9 a. m. with sermon on the Resurrection. Sunday School as usual at 10 a. m.

The adult Confirmation Class will meet at 7 p. m. Sunday night.

The entire Easter service will be in booklets in the hands of the congregation; this will include the text of the service as well as the hymns so that visitors unfamiliar with the Episcopal service will have no difficulty following.

Easter Services At Church Of God

The Church of God will conduct all day Easter services Sunday including dinner and an invitation is extended to everyone who would like to attend.

Revival service will begin next Tuesday and will be called Youth Revival. Rev. Paul Shoemaker is the youth director in charge and the young people and older people are invited to attend.

Browning, Mrs. I. L. Price, Mrs. Robert Lanier, Mrs. Urban Felsing, Mrs. Clara Gledhill, Mrs. Clyde Clayton and Mrs. Irvin Zumpf. This was followed by meditation and prayer. Mrs. Z. J. Confusion. Growers are praying for favorable weather and a big crop to make up for early losses; however, if there's a bumper spring crop here, some officials say they'll have a labor shortage. Can't win for Josin'.

Last week we were going to put didn't: What's the story behind the rumor that some of the seniors at BGHS can't read and write above the 4th grade level?

The true meaning of the term "all in a day's work" was graphically shown this week when Chief Goodlett's boys, aided and enforced by B. F. Prescott and the county crew, solved the Glades Hardware slugging in seven hours. Standing ovation, please.

Meanwhile Prescott's picture hung in the police station pinned to a police "wanted" card and put there by some joker. Among various remarks was this one: "This man is armed and considered useless and very unusual. Wanted dead or alive by Whitlock and McAllister." Note: He stopped the car with the Lockmiller slugging. Politics! Always politics!

The last straw: South Bay city clerk A. B. Crow told this one this week: A man went to his doctor and said, "Doc, I've quit smoking, wine, women and song. Will I live to be 100?" The doc says, "Probably not, but it'll seem that long."

A3/c Eddie Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson, who has been visiting here on a three weeks leave, left by plane enroute to Labrador. He completed his prescribed course of instruction in aircraft hydraulics at Airforce base in Chanute, Ill.

Fort Benning, Ga. — Army 2d Lt. Willard W. McCurdy, Jr., 23, son of Mrs. Annette N. McCurdy, Palatka, Fla., recently was graduated from The Infantry School's basic infantry officers course at Fort Benning, Ga.

Designed for officers who have not served with troops, the course gave Lieutenant McCurdy instruction in the tasks and problems of an infantry unit commander.

McCurdy, who entered the Army last October, was graduated from the University of Florida in 1955. He is a member of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity and Scabbard & Blade society.

Seoul — Army Maj. Herbert B. DeFunak whose wife, Nellwyn, lives in Palatka, Fla., recent Military Advisory Group in Korea.

American military personnel assigned to the advisory unit, a group of about 1500 highly trained officers and enlisted specialists, counsel the Republic of Korea Army on all phases of military training, tactics and operations.

Major DeFunak, an intelligence officer and a psychological warfare officer in the group's 8202d Army Unit, was last assigned at Fort Benning, Ga., before arriving in last month.

The major, son of Mrs. Sally McCracken, 6666 S. Poplar St., Casper, Wyo., is a veteran of 16 years of Army service. He holds the Bronze Star Medal and the Combat Infantryman badge.

Fort Carson, Colo. — Pvt. John H. Thomas, 20, whose wife, Louvina, and mother, Mrs. Annie Davis, live in Canal Point, Fla., is receiving basic combat training with the 8th Infantry Division at Fort Carson, Colo. Thomas is training with Headquarters and Service Company of the division's 41st Tank Battalion. The unit is preparing for its move to Europe next fall as part of Operation Gyroscope.

A farmer in civilian life, he entered the Army last month.

Seven specialists from the local experiment station will be among those attending the Soil and Crop Science Society of Florida's interim meeting at Hastings and Sanford today and tomorrow.

Those scheduled to attend the round of tours, panels and demonstrations include W. T. Forsee, chemist in charge here, and Drs. R. V. Allison, J. P. Winfree, Charles Ozaki, H. W. Burdine, V. L. Guzman and Emil Wolf.

On tap for the many state experts is a tour of a potato farm, laboratory and other farms representing agricultural pursuits in the Sanford-Hastings area.

Four specialists who attended the field day at the range experiment station at Ona last Friday were Drs. D. W. Beardsley, Ralph Kidder, H. L. Chapman, Jr., and R. J. Allen.

Saturday Drs. Kidder and Chapman attended the final session of a bull feeding experiment at the Brooksville station where two local Brahma-Devon bulls were entered.

Kidder said one animal made the second highest grade in gain during the 140 day test period. The 77 bulls in the program were fed a growing ration and determined that an animal's ability to gain weight is transferred through inheritance in a high degree.

One animal gained from 670 to 1083 pounds for 413 in the test. The other gained 395 pounds in the period. The Santa Gertrudis breed was found to be the best gainers with a ratio of 3.5 pounds.

The old-style, scratchy, hand-drawn pens in post offices will, within six months, be a thing of the past, Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield said today in announcing that competitive bids had gone out for the manufacturing of 500,000 ball point pens and 500,000 refills for use in post offices throughout the country.

"Based on extensive studies made of these pens in actual use," the Postmaster General explained, "we have decided to make ball point pens standard equipment for the use of postal patrons."

Mr. Summerfield said experiments have been conducted for many months in the use of these pens at selected post offices in various sections of the country. The results proved so encouraging that overall use was recommended by the industrial engineers of the Post Office Department.

The public as well as postal employees favored the use of these pens because of their ability to produce greater legibility. At the same time, their use will mean important savings in custodial labor formerly needed to fill ink wells, replace points and other work connected with the old type.

Commenting on the pilferage of these new pens, Mr. Summerfield noted that it was held to a minimum in the majority of post offices. Few individuals will risk up to a year in prison.

or up to a $500.00 fine to steal a pen labeled, 'Property of the United States Post Office Department' and held to the desk by a metal chain.

"We are certain," Mr. Summerfield added, "that the public, who will benefit most, will welcome these pens as a further improvement in the postal service."

Frank Crash Saturday Involves 14 Vehicles

A freak accident involving no less than 14 cars was reported last Saturday by FHP Trooper J. P. Bertrand. Twenty miles south of South Bay on U. S. 27 all the cars were involved in a series of rear-end collisions. All cars were traveling north prior to the crash.

Bertrand said fog and smoke made driving dangerous but intimated that the accident could have been prevented with caution. Injured persons were taken to Belle Glade Memorial Hospital and later released after minor treatment.

Famous bulletin from Mobilgas Economy Run

V-8 WINS CLASS A

In this year's Economy Run a new Ford V-8, with Fordomatic, was the official victor over every car in its field, with a winning average of 47.643 mi.-miles per gallon. This means that the sturdier, heavier Ford carried more weight, with greater gas economy per pound, than any car in its field.

This latest Ford victory was scored over a rough and rigorous 1,489.8-mile route running from Los Angeles to Colorado Springs. Through the heat of Death Valley and over chilling mountain heights... through gas-eating city traffic and over the straight-line open road... Ford proved anew its traditional reputation for economical performance.

The winning Ford was a regular-production model taken right from the assembly line. It was no different than thousands of '56 Fords you see on the road and in dealer's showrooms. This proves that Ford, the Performance, Style and Safety leader, leads in Economy, too. That adds up to four big reasons why the '56 Ford is worth more when you buy it, while you drive it, and when you sell it, too!
